

ATTORNEY GENERAL COX PROTECTS CONSUMERS FROM FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS

Cox Takes Action Against Advanced Fee Foreclosure Rescue Fraud

FORECLOSURE RESCUE CONSUMER INFORMATION

Foreclosure Rescue Companies prey on consumers facing foreclosure. These companies demand an up-front payment to "work" with your lender, and most never deliver the services as promised. In Michigan, the Credit Services Protection Act makes it illegal, in most cases, to take money up front in exchange for negotiating with your lender. The Credit Services Protection Act also makes it illegal for these companies to make false and/or misleading statements about their services to you. Attorney General Cox protects you and all Michigan consumers by enforcing the Credit Services Protection Act, and by informing Michigan consumers, through a consumer alert, about what to watch out for in order to avoid these types of scams. The consumer alert can be found at http://www.michigan.gov/printerFriendly/0,1687,7-164-17337_17291-215058--,00.html.

If you feel you may have been scammed, you should immediately file a complaint with Attorney General Cox's Consumer Protection Division. You can file your complaint online at: <https://secure1.state.mi.us/complaints/foreclosure.aspx> or print out the form at: http://www.michigan.gov/documents/Consumer_Complaint_Form_-_Cox_1-2-03_74916_7.pdf and mail or fax to the Consumer Protection Division at:
